CONTEMPORARY COLLECTION

HUMBLE is a light yet generous sofa based upon the bent wood tradition and skills at Gemla.

In HUMBLE contemporary design is combined with classic fabrication techniques and materials, where the frame of solid steam bent ash plays a leading role.
A cozily inviting and comfortable sofa with a clear and visable contruction, where the gently curved frame embraces the generously upholstered cushions.

The seat is very comfortable built up in a classic technique with elastic webbing and all natural materials. The back cushions have great soft and fluffy feeling, filled with natural wool.
Additional side cushions are offered on request.

Simply an elegant and comfortable sofa that is suited for any lounge area. In a hotel, office or at home.
